

MEZIERE ENTERPRISES

The Challenge:

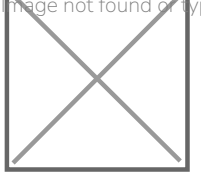

Meziere Enterprises was faced with one important challenge:

-Reduce high overhead energy costs to remain competitive within their market.

Meziere Enterprises based in Escondido since the early 1970's, is no stranger to the cost of powering a manufacturing business in San Diego. When asked why they were considering solar, company partner Don Meziere shared, "To be competitive, we need to do everything we can to
